UGRC210 PAST QUESTIONS WITH MARCUS REBIRTH

UGRC 210: ACADEMIC WRITING 2
PAST QUESTIONS COMPILED
BY:

MARCUS REBIRTH
(INFORMS)✍🏿

MARCUS REBIRTH

NOTE: The questions have been compiled based on topic for an easier and more comprehensive studies.

DEVIANT USAGE AND COMMON ERRORS

1) 2) 3) Which sentence is a sentence fragment?
A) After school, she went to the park.
B) The cat played with a ball of yarn.
C) Eating popcorn during the movie.
D) He studied for hours to prepare.
ANS: C

Which sentence contains a misplaced modifier?
A) The car parked in the driveway is blue.
B) She found the book sitting on the shelf.

MARCUS

C) Running quickly, the finish line was crossed.
D) The boy ate the sandwich with a smile
ANS: C

Which word is used correctly?
A) Their going to the party tomorrow.
B) You're going to the party tomorrow.
C) Its time to leave.
D) Them are going to the party tomorrow
ANS:B

4) Which sentence demonstrates correct parallel structure?
A) She enjoys swimming, hiking, and to read books.
B) The car is fast, reliable, and it looks good.
C) He likes playing basketball, running, and to cook.
D) They went to the beach, swam in the ocean, and had a picnic
ANS: D

5) Which sentence is a sentence fragment?
A) After school.
B) She went to the store and bought some groceries.
C) He studied for hours.
D) The cat played with a ball of yarn.
ANS: A

MARCUS

6) Which sentence contains a double subject?
A) The cat and the dog play together in the yard.
B) She cooked dinner and cleaned the kitchen.
C) He studied for the test and finished his homework.
D) They laughed and danced all night.
ANS: A

7) Which sentence is an example of a rambling sentence?
A) The book was interesting, and the characters were well-developed.
B) She went to the store, bought some groceries, and met a friend for lunch.
C) The movie was exciting, and the special effects were impressive.
D) The rain poured heavily, and we decided to stay indoors
ANS: B

8) Which sentence demonstrates correct pronoun-antecedent agreement?
A) Each student must bring their own textbook.
B) The children finished their homework.
C) Everybody should do his or her best.
D) The team celebrated its victory
ANS: D
9) Which sentence contains a split infinitive?

A) She decided to carefully clean the room.
B) They quickly ran to catch the bus.
C) He wants to be on time.
D) We need to completely finish the project
ANS: A

10) Which sentence contains a comma splice?
A) She likes to swim, hike, and bike.
B) After school, he went to the library.
C) The cat sleeps peacefully, it loves warm blankets.
D) They ate dinner, and then they watched a movie.
ANS: C

11) Which sentence has a dangling modifier?
A) After finishing her homework, the TV was turned on.
B) Walking slowly, the park was enjoyed by Jane.
C) He carefully painted the beautiful picture.
D) The book was read by Sarah after finishing her homework.
ANS: B

12) Which sentence contains a misplaced modifier?
A) The dog chased the squirrel quickly.
B) Running quickly, the ball was caught by Sarah.
C) She found a small silver ring in the garden.

MARCUS
REBIRTH

D) The child ate the delicious ice cream.
ANS: B

13) What is the error in the sentence: "At University of Ghana, cheating can result in suspension or even be expelled from school"
A) Comma splice
B) Misplaced modifier
C) Parallelism error
D) Subject-verb agreement error
ANS: C

14) Which sentence does not demonstrates correct subject-verb agreement?
A) The cat play with the toy.
B) The dogs play in the yard.
C) Neither the windows nor the door needs to be painted.
D) The two girls enjoyed dancing, swimming, and shopping.
ANS: A

15) Choose the correctly punctuated sentence:
A) She loves hiking; she goes on trails every weekend.
B) After the rain, we saw a rainbow.
C) He ate quickly, he had a meeting to attend.
D) The concert was fantastic, the musicians were very talented.

ANS: A

16) Which sentence contains a double subject error?
A) My hometown is very big.
B) My hometown, it is very big.
C) The mountains we visited them were beautiful.
D) The mountains we visited were beautiful.
ANS: B

17) Identify the sentence with a parallel structure:
A) The two girls enjoyed dancing, swimming, and shopping.
B) The two girls enjoyed dancing, swimming, and shopped.
C) The two girls enjoyed dancing, swimming, and mall visits.
D) The two girls enjoyed dancing, swimming, and went to the mall.
ANS: A

18) What type of error is present in the sentence: "The internet has made the world smaller, you can meet people everywhere."
A) Sentence fragment
B) Comma splice
C) Misplaced modifier
D) Clear pronoun reference

ANS: B

19) Choose the sentence that demonstrates proper pronoun reference.
A) After she discussed the new strategy with Jill, Akosua decided to proceed as planned.
B) Akosua discussed the new strategy with Jill. She decided to proceed as planned.
C) Discussing the new strategy with Jill, Akosua decided to proceed as planned.
D) Akosua decided to proceed as planned after discussing the new strategy with Jill.
ANS: A

20) In the sentence, "The fufu dish was empty, but we were tired of eating it anyway," what type of pronoun reference error is present?
A) Ambiguous pronoun
B) Loose antecedent
C) Hidden antecedent
D) No antecedent at all
ANS: C

21) What is the major error in the sentence: "Take the radio out of the car and fix it."
A) Dangling modifier

B) Hidden antecedent
C) Clear pronoun reference
D) Double subject
ANS: B

22) Which of the following is an example of a comma splice?
A) She loves hiking; she goes on trails every weekend.
B) After the rain, we saw a rainbow.
C) He ate quickly, he had a meeting to attend.
D) The concert was fantastic, and the musicians were very talented
ANS: C

23) Which sentence has a misplaced adverb?
A) She almost completed the puzzle.
B) Swiftly, he assembled the furniture.
C) The cat slept soundly on the couch.
D) John carefully painted the room.
ANS: B

24) Which sentence has a clear pronoun reference?
A) After washing the car, Mark polished it.
B) She decided to buy a new computer, and it worked perfectly.
C) The book was on the shelf; it was interesting.
D) If they leave now, we can catch the train.

ANS: A

25) Which sentence contains a split infinitive?
A) To quickly run was her decision.
B) She decided quickly to run.
C) To run swiftly is a great exercise.
D) She decided to run swiftly.
ANS: B

26) Which sentence has a dangling modifier?
A) Riding his bike, the park delighted Jake.
B) After finishing the book, the movie was watched by Sarah.
C) Running swiftly, Jane finished the race.
ANS: B

27) Which revision corrects the misplaced modifier in this sentence? Falling off the cliff, Jake was surprised to see a large boulder.
A) Even though they smelled delicious, the children didn't eat the cookies.
B) Jake was surprised to see a large boulder falling off the cliff.
C) While I was brushing my teeth, a spider crawled on the sink.
D) In a rush, the slow traffic was grating on my nerves

ANS: B

28) How can you correct a misplaced adjective?
A) Remove the adjective
LARBI OFORI RICHMOND
B) Place the adjective next to the noun it modifies
C) Change the adjective to an adverb
D) Swap the positions of two adjectives
ANS: B

29) Which sentence contains a misplaced modifier?
A) She almost lost her wallet yesterday.
B) Swiftly running, the marathon was completed by Miss Ro.
C) He carefully assembled the puzzle.
D) The cat slept soundly on the windowsill
ANS: B

30) What is a misplaced modifier?
A) A punctuation mark used incorrectly
B) A word, phrase, or clause improperly separated from the word it modifies
C) A sentence with incorrect verb tense
D) A type of conjunction error
ANS: B

WRITING SKILLS 1: MAKING NOTES FROM A TEXT

1) 2) 3) When does note-making typically occur?

A. During lectures

B. While reading

C. In seminars

D. During fieldwork

ANS: B

In what situations are you likely to take notes, according to the provided information?

A. Fieldwork

B. Seminars

C. Conferences

D. All of the above

ANS: D

What is the main focus of note-making in this session?

A. Note-taking

B. Note-making from written materials

C. Note-making during lectures

D. Note-making during fieldwork

ANS: B

4) Why is note-making emphasized?

A. To capture information quickly

B. To make sense of information from a text
C. To organize key ideas
D. All of the above
5) 6) 7) 8) ANS: C

What are characteristics of good notes, as mentioned in the session?
A. Unorganized and detailed
B. Use of complex sentences
C. Use of visual techniques
D. Avoidance of abbreviations
ANS: C

7. What is a key step in making notes from a text, according to the provided information? -
A. Preview
B. Highlight
C. Take notes only during lectures
D. Skip the introduction and conclusion
ANS: A

What should be included in the preview of a text?
A. Boldface items
B. Main ideas
C. Examples
D. All of the above

ANS: D

MARCUS

What is the purpose of marking important items in the text?
A. To memorize them
B. To make the text colourful
C. To identify key information
D. To skip them during note-making ANS: C

9) What is the key focus during the "Write down key issues" step in note-making?
A. Summarizing and paraphrasing
B. Copying verbatim from the text
C. Highlighting all information
D. Ignoring less important details
ANS: A

10) What is a crucial tip for making good notes, according to the session?
A. Avoid the use of abbreviations
B. Include as many details as possible
C. Organize information into key and supporting ideas
D. Ignore visual techniques
ANS: C

11) What should be done with pictures or diagrams during the preview of a text?

A. Skip them
B. Include them in the preview
C. Analyse them later
D. Only look at the captions
ANS: B

12) . Which step involves condensing information during note-making?
A. Preview
B. Marking important items
C. Summarizing
D. Paraphrasing
ANS: C

13) What is the purpose of paraphrasing during note-making?
A. To confuse the reader
B. To make the text longer
C. To rewrite information in your own words
D. To copy verbatim from the text
ANS: C

14) . What is a key tip for making effective notes?
A. Include unrelated information
B. Use complex sentences

MARCUS

C. Use bullet points
D. Avoid visual techniques
ANS: C

15) During note-making, what should be done with boldface items in the text?
A. Ignore them
B. Include them in the preview
C. Mark them as unimportant
LARBI OFORI RICHMON
D. Highlight or underline them
ANS: D

16) What is the main goal of marking important items in the text?
A. To skip them during note-making
B. To create a colourful text
C. To identify and remember key information
D. To make the text confusing
ANS: D

17) What is the focus when building upon ideas during note-making?
A. Copying verbatim
B. Expanding on key issues
C. Avoiding examples

D. Skipping less important details
ANS: D

18) What is the importance of note-making from written materials?
A. To capture information quickly
B. To organize key ideas
C. To extract information from a text
D. Both B and C
ANS: D

19) What should be done with underlining during note-making?
A. Avoid underlining
B. Use it excessively
C. Underline all text
D. Use it to identify main points
ANS: D

WRITING SKILLS 2: SUMMARY WRITING

1) What is a summary?
A detailed analysis
B. A shortened passage retaining essential information
C. A verbatim copy of the original text
D. A lengthy explanation

MARCUS

ANS: B

2) Why should one summarize?
A. To make the text longer
B. To confuse the reader
C. To condense a text to its main points
D. To add unnecessary details
ANS: C

3) What are the major ingredients of a good summary?
A. Complexity, length, and personal opinions
B. Brevity, accuracy, and objectivity
C. Repetition, verbosity, and confusion
D. Ambiguity, subjectivity, and inaccuracy
ANS: B

4) What does brevity refer to in the context of summarizing?
A. Adding unnecessary details
B. Making the summary longer than the original text
C. Being short or brief
D. Confusing the reader
ANS: C

5) What does accuracy mean in the context of summarizing?

A. Changing the message or idea(s) of the text
B. Maintaining the intended message despite brevity
C. Including personal opinions
D. Expressing value judgments
ANS: B

6) What is the recommended length of a good summary compared to the original text?
A. Longer
B. About half of the original text
C. About a third or a quarter of the original text
D. The same length as the original text
ANS: C

7) What should a summary contain?
A. Only the writer's opinions
B. The writer's ideas and additional information
C. Only the source's ideas, without personal views
D. Repetition and unnecessary details
ANS: C

8) What does objectivity mean in the context of summarizing?
A. Including personal opinions
B. Maintaining a faithful reproduction of the original

MARCUS

C. Interpreting information from the original text
D. Changing the message or idea(s) of the text
ANS: B

9) What is the first step in writing a summary?
A. Weaving one-sentence summaries
B. Reading the text carefully
C. Dividing the text into sections
D. Formulating a thesis statement
ANS: D

10) What should you check during the editing of the summary draft?
A. If personal views and ideas are included
B. If all information is excluded
C. If grammar, punctuation, and spelling are incorrect
D. If the summary is longer than the original text
ANS: A

11) How would you define a good summary?
A. A lengthy explanation of a text
B. A faithful reproduction of the original
C. A concise overview of main points in one's own words
D. A verbatim copy of the source's ideas
ANS: C

12) What role does brevity play in a good summary?
A. Adding unnecessary details
B. Making the summary shorter than the original text
C. Confusing the reader
D. Changing the intended message
ANS: B

13) What role does brevity play in a good summary?
A. Adding unnecessary details
B. Making the summary shorter than the original text
C. Confusing the reader
D. Changing the intended message
ANS: B

14) Why is objectivity essential in creating a good summary?
A. To include personal opinion
B. To interpret the information in the original text
C. To maintain a faithful reproduction of the original
D. To change the message or idea(s) of the text
ANS: B

15) How does a good summary contribute to understanding a text?
A. By adding unnecessary details

B. By providing a verbatim copy of the source's ideas
C. By condensing the text to its main points in one's own words
D. By expressing personal opinions
ANS: C

16) What is the significance of brevity in a summarized text?
A. Making the summary longer than the original text
B. Adding unnecessary details for clarity
C. Being short or brief to capture essential information
D. Confusing the reader with excessive information
ANS: C

17) In the context of summarizing, why is it crucial to avoid personal views and ideas?
A. To make the summary longer
B. To maintain objectivity and focus on the source's ideas
C. To express value judgments
D. To confuse the reader
ANS: B

18) When should quotation marks be used in a summary?
A. For directly quoted parts
B. To identify the original source
C. When expressing personal opinions
D. When changing the message of the text

ANS: A

19) Why is it important to reference the original source in a summary?
A. To add personal views
B. To avoid brevity
C. To maintain accuracy
D. To confuse the reader
ANS: C

20) What does accuracy refer to in the context of summarizing?
A. Changing the message or idea(s) of the text
B. Maintaining the intended message despite brevity
C. Including personal opinions
D. Expressing value judgments
ANS: B

WRITING SKILLS 3: WRITING A PHRASE

1) 1. What is encouraged in academic writing, especially if done correctly?
A) Summarizing
B) Quoting
C) Paraphrasing
D) All of the above

ANS: D

2) Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a challenge in reading academic texts?
A) Understanding meaning
B) Incorporating material
C) Formatting
D) Daunting
process for new material
ANS: C

3) What does paraphrasing involve?
A) Rewording with the same phrasing
C) Rewording without changing structure
B) Using fewer words
D) Rewording with different phrasing
ANS: D

4) What does a paraphrase suggest about the writer?
A) Lack of understanding C) Copying the author's words
B) Understanding the source material
D) Both
A and C
ANS: B

5) Why is paraphrasing considered more important than quoting in academic writing?
A) Enhances originality B) Saves space C) Faster to write D)

Both A and B
ANS: A

6) What is a key step to follow when writing a paraphrase?
A) Use technical words C) Read the text carefully B) Repeat words from the source
D) Ignore complex concepts
ANS: C

7) Why should sentences in a paraphrase be kept short and simple?
A) To confuse the audience
C) For better understanding
B) To mimic the original text
D) Both A and B
ANS: C

8) What should be indicated in a paraphrase to avoid plagiarism?
A) Your personal views
B) The source of the paraphrase
C) Technical words
D) All of the above
ANS: B

9) What is a key point in the discussion of the legitimacy of a paraphrase?

A) Clear citation is not necessary
B) All details from the original must be included
C) Proper citation strengthens the passage
D) Both A and B
ANS: C

10) What is NOT mentioned as a benefit of paraphrasing?
A) Enhanced memory C) Faster writing process B) Better understanding of complex ideas
D) Form of learning for the individual
ANS: C

11) What should you do before attempting to write a paraphrase?
A) Read the text and ensure understanding C) Use technical language B) Repeat the ideas in the same words
D) Ignore complex concepts
ANS: A

12) Why is paraphrasing considered evidence of creative control?
A) It uses technical words C) It substitutes the author's words B) It borrows from the source
D) It ignores details
ANS: C

13) What is the emphasis regarding the use of technical words in paraphrasing?
A) Use them frequently C) Avoid them completely B) Explain technical words
D) Include them without explanation
ANS: C

14) Why is paraphrasing considered valuable in academic writing?
A) It saves space B) It makes work look less original
C) It enhances originality D) It complicates ideas
ANS: C

15) What is paraphrasing in basic terms?
A) Rewording with fewer words B) Rewording with the same structure
C) Expressing the ideas in a new way without directly copying the original phrasing.
D) Rewording with the same phrasing
ANS: C

16) Why might a reader be misled in an illegitimate paraphrase?
A) The language is too complex C) The citation is only at the end B) The citation is too early

D) The paraphrase uses technical words
ANS: C

17) What should be made clearer for the audience in a paraphrase?
LARBI OFORI RICHMOND
A) Technical words B) Complex concepts C) Original phrasing D) Both A and C
ANS: B

18) What is the importance of breaking down the original passage into two separate paragraphs in a legitimate paraphrase?
A) Saves space C) Confuses the reader B) Highlights structure of the original argument
D) Both A and C
ANS: B

19) What is the key reason for including explicit references to the source in a paraphrase?
A) Strengthens the passage B) Mimics the original text
C) Saves space D) Both A and B
ANS: A

20) What does a paraphrase NOT involve?
A) Borrowing ideas C) Replicating phrasing B) Proper citation
D) Rewording using the same structure
ANS: C

WRITING FROM MULTIPLE SOURCES: REFERENCES AND QUOTATIONS/ USING VERBS OF REFERENCE
1) 2) 3) 4) 5) 6) What is the primary purpose of references and quotations in academic writing?
A) To showcase the writer's creativity B) To give credit to other researcher ideas
C) To add unnecessary details to the text D) To confuse the readers
ANS: B

Why is it important to use references in academic writing?
A) To make the text longer C) To impress the readers B) To avoid plagiarism
D) To criticize other researchers' work
ANS: B

Which of the following is not a reason for giving references, according to Bailey (2015)?
A) To show that you have read some authorities on the subject

B) To allow readers to locate your sources
C) To make your writing more complicated
D) To avoid plagiarism
ANS: C

What is the purpose of the in-text citation in academic writing?
A) To confuse the readers C) To cite the source where an idea was used B) To show off the writer's knowledge
D) To summarize the entire essay
ANS: C

In a direct quotation, what information should be included in the in-text citation?
A) Only the author's surname B) Author's surname and date of publication
C) Author's surname, date of publication, and page number
D) Title of the work and page number
ANS: B

What is one reason to use quotations sparingly in academic writing?
LARBI OFORI RICHMOND
A) To make the text longer C) To avoid plagiarism B) To demonstrate the writer's lack of originality

D) To confuse the readers
ANS: C

7) How should a summary be cited in an in-text citation?
A) Only the author's surname C) Author's surname, date of publication, and page number B) Author's surname and date of publication
D) Title of the work and page number
ANS: B

8) When is it appropriate to use ellipsis (...) in a quotation?
A) To replace any word in the sentence C) To take out unnecessary words without changing the meaning B) To indicate a change in topic
D) To add emphasis to the original words
ANS: C

9) How are nested quotations formatted in academic writing?
A) Both nested and outer quotations in single quotation marks
B) Both nested and outer quotations in double quotation marks

C) Nested quotations in single quotation marks, outer in double
D) Nested quotations in double quotation marks, outer in single
ANS: C

10) What is a block quotation, and when is it used?
A) A quotation with a square block around it
B) A long quotation (four lines or more) indented and without quotation marks
C) A quotation with extra spacing between lines
D) A short, concise quotation with emphasis
ANS: B

11) Which of the following is an appropriate way to introduce a quotation using verbs of reference?
A) "The author mentions..."
C) "According to the author..."
B) "The author is mentioning..."
D) "The author will mention..."
ANS: C

12) How are verbs of reference used to present a case in academic writing?
A) By repeating the main idea

B) By stating facts without analysis
C) By indicating a reaction to a previously stated position
D) By arguing, claiming, or hypothesizing
ANS: D

13) What is the purpose of the end-text list of references in academic writing?
A) To showcase the writer's favourite sources
B) To impress the readers with a long list
C) To provide additional information not included in the essay
D) To list all the sources used or cited in the essay
ANS: D

14) How should the end-text list of references be arranged?
A) In order of the length of the sources
B) In chronological order of publication
C) In alphabetical order using the surname of the author
D) In the order of the importance of the sources
ANS: D

MARCUS REBIRTH
(INFORMS)✍🏾

MARCUS
REBIRTH
INFORMS

7 Saturday
Mar 2026